

ANDY SWANN VOYAGE - CURATED COLLECTION

Normandy Experience

You cannot begin to understand the true meaning of bravery and sacrifice until you have stood in the middle of Omaha Beach at low tide.

Over one or two days, learn about the American experience on D-Day. From the exploits of the 82nd and 101st airborne divisions around Saint-Mère-Église and Carentan to the daring assault of US Army Rangers at Pointe du Hoc, from the dunes of Utah beach to the bunkers of WN72 on Dog Green sector of Omaha, you'll hear about the achievements of the "Greatest Generation".

Did your father, grandfather, or uncle fight in the Battle of Normandy? Embark on a customized personal history tour, spending several days tracing the footsteps of your military family member with a professional researcher and guide. Using the personal information that you provide, we research your relative's unit, creating a tour that takes you off the tourist trails and onto the path of the company he fought with and, if possible, focusing on your relative's involvement. Experience a more intimate relationship with your family member's history, the battle he fought in, and Normandy as a whole!
