On winepaths.com, visitors will find 2 distinctive “paths” to organize their upcoming holiday:

- They can trust the local travel expert of the region they'd like to visit with designing and booking their dream vacation on their behalf: our “insiders” will adapt and customize the desired itinerary to the travelers' preferences and needs and will ensure a unique and high-end program. For example, someone looking to combine hidden-gems and exclusive experiences for the perfect tailor-made trip, can simply contact us via Andy's respective profiles (Provence or Burgundy) on the site to make an enquiry and book.
- They can be their own travel agent and plan their escapade entirely on their own by browsing the site, choosing the activities and places they'd like to visit and directly contacting the wineries, distilleries, hotels or restaurants to book.
